

Hays Native Serves as Congressional Intern in Moran's Washington, D.C. Office

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Congressman Jerry Moran announced that Sam Jeter is serving as a congressional intern in his Washington, D.C. office. Jeter is a 2005 graduate of Hays High School and a 2009 graduate of the University of Kansas.

“Congressional internships offer Kansas students a great opportunity to learn about Congress and the legislative process,” Moran said. “Sam is doing important work for Kansans and gaining valuable experience that will help him in the future.”

Jeter is a second year law student at New England School of Law. After graduation, he hopes to practice law in Kansas.

“Working with Congressman Moran has been an eye-opening experience for me,” Jeter said. “I’ve become exposed to the inner workings of our legislative branch and how Members of Congress deal with our nation’s tough issues. Public officials really do make a difference and I am glad that I can do my part to contribute.”

Jeter assists Moran with legislative and administrative duties on behalf of the people of Kansas.
